Legal

Mayor's Business

- Mayor Nehring gave an update on the City's COVID-19 response.
- Community Transit had a Board Meeting where they discussed extremely low ridership and other issues affecting the agency.
- Dom Amor is the new interim CEO of Economic Alliance Snohomish County as the previous CEO has taken an opportunity elsewhere.
- Association of Washington Cities cancelled their summer conference in Yakima, but they will be doing the business meeting online.

Staff Business

Human Resources Manager Lester had no new comments.

Interim Chief Goldman announced the Police Department is healthy and doing well. Criminal activity is down due to a well-executed plan.

Director Langdon reminded everyone that the Finance Committee meeting scheduled for Wednesday had been cancelled.

Community Information Officer Mennie had no comments.

Director Mizell announced that one of the two boats has been removed from the waterfront.

Chief McFalls welcomed Kristin Banfield to Marysville. He is looking forward to seeing everyone soon.

Director Nielsen thanked Council for approving the two projects tonight. These are essential projects for getting the economy rolling again.

City Attorney Walker stated the need for three Executive Session items tonight - one regarding pending litigation with action expected, one regarding purchase of real estate with no action expected, and one regarding labor relations discussions with action expected. He estimated 30 minutes for the three items.

CAO Hirashima had no comments.

Call on Councilmembers

Councilmember Stevens reminded everyone to file their F1s.

Councilmember King commented that there is a Fire Board meeting coming up this week. There is also a meeting with the Strawberry Festival committee to finalize a decision about the Strawberry Festival.

Councilmember Muller had no comments.

Councilmember James commended Mayor Nehring and Interim Chief Goldman for their quick work in addressing a situation with a camper on the waterfront trail.

Councilmember Vaughan asked Director Nielsen about the effects of the stay-at-home order on utilities. Director Nielsen replied that consumption is up. The number one concern is flushable wipes which cause problems in the system. The City is working on communications with the public to address this. As far as capacity goes, there haven't been any issues.

Councilmember Vaughan reported that the Health District has been very busy with other issues in addition to COVID-19. He is looking forward to getting back together in person.

Councilmember Richards commended all city staff for keeping things going. He misses seeing everyone in person.

Council President Norton asked Chief Goldman if the SRO's are back on patrol. Interim Chief Goldman reported that they are either serving in other capacities, on vacation, or are at home due to being in a high-risk category.
