Regular Meeting
July 9, 2018

Call to Order / Pledge of Allegiance

Mayor Nehring called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. and led those present in the Pledge of Allegiance. Danny Butcher of Bethany Church gave the invocation.

Roll Call

Chief Administrative Officer Hirashima gave the roll call. The following staff and councilmembers were in attendance.

Mayor: Jon Nehring

Council: Mark James, Tom King, Steve Muller, Kamille Norton (President), Rob Toyer, Michael Stevens and Jeff Vaughan

Absent: None

Also Present: Chief Administrative Officer Gloria Hirashima, Finance Director Sandy Langdon, Police Chief Rick Smith, City Attorney Jon Walker, City Engineer Jeff Laycock, Parks Director Jim Ballew, Community Development Director Dave Koenig, Fire Chief Martin McFalls, Public Relations Administrator Connie Mennie, and Recording Secretary Laurie Hugdahl.

Motion made by Councilmember Toyer, seconded by Councilmember James, to approve the agenda. Motion passed unanimously (7-0).

Committee Reports

Councilmember Norton reported on the June 27 Public Safety Committee meeting where they had an update on the hiring status. At the time of the meeting there were four open patrol positions and one open custody officer position. The NITE Team and the Property Crimes Unit have been very busy dealing with transient issues and have had some good success. The Committee received a report on the emphasis for the 4th of July regarding fireworks. They received an update on the embedded social worker program; Officer Buell remains very busy with this. There have been some good successes with this program. There was an update on the Strawberry Festival. There was also an update on the public safety tax initiative

Presentations

Audience Participation

Paula Pugh, 11718 - 56th Avenue NE, Marysville, WA, encouraged everyone to vote on the 2018 Best of Snohomish County Awards. She drew attention to local Marysville businesses that would benefit from their votes.

Tobias Simcox, 7119 – 58th Street NE, Marysville, WA, commented that the fireworks ban has impacted the celebratory feeling of the 4th of July. He asked if there would be any follow up on the decision to ban fireworks. Mayor Nehring reviewed the process that had been taken prior to the ban. Councilmember Vaughan further discussed the background on this item.

Annie Fitzgerald, 7218 - 47th Avenue NE, Marysville, WA, stated she was glad that the ban was implemented because of the illegal fireworks that used to occur in her neighborhood. She noticed a big change this year. She attended a march in Everett dealing with immigration issues and asked what Marysville is doing to address this matter. Chief Smith explained that the police comply with all of their federal partners. When it comes to immigration issues, their focus is on crime in the community. Ms. Fitzgerald also commented on the rise in homelessness and asked what is being done about that.

Mayor Nehring acknowledged that there has been a rise in homelessness throughout the nation. He commented on things the City has done to address this issue including: dedicated houses in the city, an embedded social worker, a cold weather shelter, and several places where people can get free meals. He added that while the city offers many services, they do not tolerate criminal activities.

Paula Pugh added that Anna from Life Church 360 works specifically with the Hispanic community.

Staff Business

Chief Smith:

- He gave an update on the fireworks approach taken by the Marysville Police this year. There was a decrease this year in the number of complaints and a decrease in the number of citations written.
- He commented on an incident which received quite a bit of media attention where a Marysville police officer went out of his way to pick up a flag that was touching the ground.
- Mayor Nehring thanked Chief Smith for the work he and his department have done regarding fireworks over the last few years.

Sandy Langdon had no comments.

Jon Walker stated the need for an Executive Session to discuss two items regarding acquisition of real estate, one item regarding potential litigation and one item regarding collective bargaining negotiations with no action expected on any expected to last 15 minutes.

Dave Koenig had no comments.

Chief McFalls gave an update on the 4th of July. He reported that there was an all-time low in the number of incidents this year with one firework-related injury and one possible firework-related fire. Both occurred outside the city limits. He also reported that Daniel Allen retired from the Fire District recently.

Jim Ballew:

- This weekend Junk in the Trunk will be held at the court.
- Outdoor concerts start on Friday night.
- Movies at Jennings Park start on Saturday.
- There was one firework-related fire in Jennings Park, but no other parks were impacted over the 4th.

Jeff Laycock had no comments.

Gloria Hirashima had no comments.

Call on Councilmembers

Jeff Vaughan had no comments.

Mark James had no comments.
