Mayor's Business

10. Consider the Reappointment of Kay Smith and Kelly Huestis to the Parks, Culture, and Recreation Advisory Board

Mayor Nehring reviewed the proposed reappointments of Kay Smith and Kelly Huestis.

Mayor's Business:

- Mayor Nehring, Council President Norton and Councilmember Vaughan attended the AWC Conference last week. He discussed some of the happenings down there. It was clear that transportation funding was not going to happen this session because of the uncertainty related to I-976.
- The Mayors' Task Force on Growth Management had its first meeting today, and it went really well. Councilmembers James, Muller and Stevens will be participating. Thanks to Director Thomas and his team for putting together a nice presentation.
- He and Council President Norton have been working on the retreat agenda. Staff will be putting presentations together.

Staff Business

Director Langdon had no comments.

Teri Lester had no comments.

Director Thomas agreed it was a good meeting today.

Chief Goldman reported on the matter brought up by Council regarding the folks under I-5 on 4th Street. They are gone for now, but police are monitoring this diligently.

Chief McFalls commended Mayor Nehring for his State of the City speech at the Chamber last Friday.

Director Mizell had no comments.

Director Nielsen gave a reminder about the Public Works Committee meeting this Friday at 2:00.

Connie Mennie commented that she is preparing a proclamation that staff will be bringing forward for Black History Month next week.

City Attorney Walker had no comments.

CAO Hirashima had no comments.

Call on Councilmembers

Councilmember Muller had no comments.

Councilmember Richards reported on a high school basketball game he attended last week which was a lot of fun to watch.

Councilmember Vaughan shared some highlights from the AWC Conference and Council's time in Olympia. He reported on the legislative agenda for the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs where they talked about the issues associated with the wait time of getting people into the police academy and other matters.

Councilmember King:

- He attended the Technical Advisory Committee meeting last week where they scored Community Development Block Grants.
- He also commended Mayor Nehring for the State of the City address.
- He attended the Snohomish-Island County Fire Commissioners banquet.

Mark James:

- It was a great State of the City address.
- The Task Force on Growth Management was very interesting and exciting.
- He asked Councilmember Vaughan for a copy of the police academy information.

Council President Norton:

- She agreed it was an interesting session in Olympia.
- She and the Mayor are finalizing the retreat agenda. Their hope is that it will be a good opportunity to share thoughts and ideas.
